<sup>2</sup> The Court expects counsel to work together in an effort to submit, to the fullest extent possible, an agreed upon version of preliminary and final jury instructions, and verdict forms or special interrogatories to the jury. The statement of the case for use in the preliminary jury instructions should summarize succinctly each party's position and should state the essential elements of claims and defenses that must be proven by each party. Where agreement is not reached, requests for jury instructions must be accompanied by citation of legal authority. If a model jury instruction is used (e.g., Devitt & Blackmar), any modifications should be indicated by underlining and boldfacing additions and striking out deletions.
